About us

Vardhmaan Housewares LLP is a dynamic and innovative company operating in the home and kitchenware segment. Rooted in a legacy of over three decades of excellence, the company represents a powerful extension of the highly respected Indian brand, Magppie. Known globally for its exceptional design philosophy, unwavering quality standards, and customer-centric approach, Magppie has earned an illustrious reputation in the premium lifestyle and homeware markets. Vardhmaan Housewares carries forward this proud legacy, bringing the same ethos to a broader audience while ensuring that quality, innovation, and design remain at the heart of everything it does.

Heritage and Brand Evolution

Magppie was established over 30 years ago with a vision to redefine Indian design and craftsmanship in the global context. What began as a specialized venture in premium kitchenware quickly evolved into a brand that resonates with discerning consumers worldwide. With a keen focus on merging aesthetic appeal with everyday functionality, Magppie became a pioneer in design-led homeware in India.

Throughout its journey, the brand has consistently demonstrated its capability to evolve and innovate. Whether it is through collaborations with international designers or by embracing sustainable manufacturing practices long before they became industry standards, Magppie has always been ahead of the curve. Its success story is deeply intertwined with India's rise as a hub for world-class design and manufacturing.

Vardhmaan Housewares LLP emerged as a strategic initiative by the Magppie leadership to bring its hallmark design and quality sensibilities to a wider, mass-market audience. The goal was simple yet ambitious: to democratize access to beautifully crafted, high-quality homeware products without compromising the brand's core values.

Our Mission

To enhance the everyday lives of consumers by offering high-quality, thoughtfully designed, and affordable home and kitchenware products, driven by a commitment to excellence, innovation, and sustainability.

Our Vision

To be a leading force in the global home and kitchenware industry by setting new benchmarks in design, quality, and customer satisfaction while remaining rooted in the legacy and values of the Magppie brand.
